OFFBOARDING CHECKLIST- VIRTUAL AND ON-SITE PLACEMENTS

Task	Status
 Schedule an exit interview Review Learning Plan Discuss plans for wrapping up final projects Provide feedback on overall performance Complete final student evaluation
3. Inform relevant parties (staff, volunteers, clients) of the end of the practicum and student's departure
 Arrange return of any materials belonging to the organization (e.g. keys, access cards, computers, USBs, parking permits, etc.)
 Ensure transfer of files and documents (e.g. from student's personal computer/drive to shared drives)
6. If applicable, remove student from any collaboration platforms, networks or other online spaces.
 Update communication systems (e.g. designate alternate contact, close e- mail account, set auto-reply on e-mails, change voicemail notice, etc.)
 Discuss if/how student will be able to use the work they produced (e.g. authorship/publication, retaining copies for personal use, etc.)
 9. Discuss any opportunities for continued involvement in the organization Locating future employment opportunities (e.g. job boards, listservs, etc.) Interest in recommending them for opportunities
 10. Discuss future communication Connecting on LinkedIn Writing a reference letter Serving as a reference (e.g. discuss required lead time, contact information, etc.) Share preferred contact information (e.g. non-York e-mail address) 11. Complete partnership evaluation form (online form coming soon) 	